Fairfield, CT 06824-5001

Dear Mr. Hatzis:

The Committee on Public Secondary Schools, at its March 29-30, 2015 meeting, reviewed the Pre-Self-Study Report of Fairfield Ludlowe High School and continued the school's accreditation.

The Committee was pleased to learn of the following:

- the extension of the advisory program to all students

- the identification of Indicators in the Standards for Accreditation that will need to be addressed in preparation for the self-study

- the completion of the library media curriculum that includes information literacy skills

The school is scheduled for an evaluation visit in the calendar year 2018. The Committee is currently engaged in a review of the self-study process in collaboration with a number of educators across the six states. School officials will be provided with information related to any changes that have been adopted well in advance of the school's commencement of its self-study.
